What moved your score

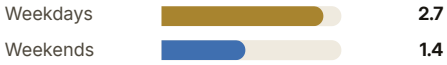

Score 86 A

The patterns behind your week

From your last 4 weeks

Weekends cost you meals logged

Over the last 4 weeks, you logged 2.7 meals a day on weekdays and 1.4 on weekends.

Better nights, better days

Your mood averaged 4.1 of 5 after 7 h+ sleep and 2.8 of 5 after shorter nights.

You stay on plan under stress

On calm days you logged 1.3 meals; on high-stress days, 2.7.

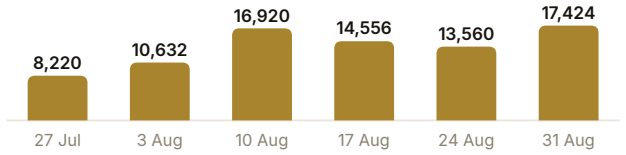

Patterns compare your own days with each other. They show what tends to go together, not proof of cause.

Next week: the plan

7 Sep – 13 Sep 2026

YOUR ONE BIG LEVER FOR NEXT WEEK

Log all 21 meals

This week: 17 of 21 meals. Of everything you could change, this moves your score the most.

+2.4
points on its own

Three targets

Scored at the start of your next report

1	Log all 21 meals	This week: 17 / 21	+2.4 pts
2	Land within 10% of 2,150 kcal every day	This week: 5 / 7	+2.1 pts
3	Sleep 7 h or more on 6 nights	This week: 4 / 7	+0.9 pts

If you hit all three

Estimate from the score formula

Hitting all three targets is worth about 5.4 points, taking you to 91 (A+), if everything else holds steady.

FROM YOUR COACH

Aarav, you moved from 77 to 86 this week, and that is earned, not luck. The highlight: 7-day streak. One thing your data shows: over the last 4 weeks, you logged 2.7 meals a day on weekdays and 1.4 on weekends. Next week, focus on one thing: log all 21 meals. It is worth about 2.4 points on its own. Reply to me any time — I read every message.
